

Dear Parents,

Murdoch University is holding a Parent Evening on the topic “Is your child the first in family to go to university?”

Guest speaker Associate Professor Sarah O’Shea from the University of Wollongong, will tackle the common questions and concerns raised by ‘first in family’ students and their families, and provide insight into how these students can be supported and advised during their transition to university.

This informative evening is suited for parents whose children may be the first in family to study at university, and for parents supporting their children through their senior years of schooling.

Where: Murdoch University, South Street campus - Lecture Theatre ECL1

When: Thursday March 23rd

Time: 7pm—8:30pm

Cost: FREE
