

HUMPTY DUMPTY

by Dave and Jean Perry

Hump-ty Dump-ty was a won-der-ful guy,
Friend-ly pleas-ant, a lit-tle bit shy.
Peo-ple liked him from the ver-y first sight.

(S)But Hump-ty had a draw-back,

(A) He wasn't too bright.

Da dum, da dum, da dum, da dum, dum

Dwee bah doot-'n doot-'n bah dop bow.

(A) Word came down the King was comin' to town, Bugles, banners, and folks of renown.

(S) Hump-ty was short, he just came up to my knee. He need-ed a place ...

(A) To look out and see.

(All)Hump-ty

(A) He was a good egg

(All)Dump-ty

(S) Such a good egg.

(All)But you've got to use some sense or you'll pay the con-se-quence,

And grav-i-ty will pull you back down

(A) to the ground.

(All)Hump-ty Dump-ty climbed up on the wall. Care-ful! Stea-dy! You don't want to fall.

(S)An egg's sense of bal-ance is sha-ky at best.

(All)But the view he had was bet-ter

(A) Than all of the rest.

{ (S)Dwee bah doot-'n doot-'n dwe bah doo bah. Dwee bah doot-'n doot-'n bah dop bow.
(A)Da dum, da dum, da dum, da dum, dum Da dum, da bah dop bow.

(All) Soon the King ap-peared with all of his men,

(A) Short ones

(S) Tall ones,

(All) Some of them thin.

(S) Hump-ty leaned for-ward to see it all.

That's when he slipped and skid-ded

(A) And started to fall.

(All)Hump-ty

(A) He was a good egg

(All)Dump-ty

(S) Such a good egg.

(All)But you've got to use some sense or you'll pay the con-se-quence,

And grav-i-ty will pull you back down

(A) To the ground.

(All) Well, ...Hump-ty land-ed hard on the ground. Crack! Splat! Not a good sound.

All the hors-es came with all the King's men, But they cound-n't put poor Hump-ty

(A) to-geth-er a-gain, to-geth-er a-gain,

They could-n't put poor Hump-tyto-geth-er a-gain.

Splatt!
