

IN MY CLOSET

We're going somewhere special, so I have to get dressed.

My Mum said it's important for me to look my best.

She said hanging in the closet, my clothes are nice and pressed.

But what I found instead of clothes, she never would have guessed.

1. I found a leaf; I found a bug; I found a pencil by the wall
I found a dollar and a sandwich, that's been in here since last fall.
I found a dozen lolly wrappers,
And my fav'rite basketball.

(all) I haven't found a thing to wear;
I haven't found a thing to wear,
(spoken) But I found my watch!
(sung) And that's not all!

CHORUS:

Hurry come down! Hurry come down this minute! Get dressed!
Hurry come down! Hurry come down this minute! Get dressed!

[What's taking so long? What's taking so long?
Hurry come down! Hurry come down this minute! Get dressed!

2. I found a rock; I found a shell; I found a snake skin that was shed.
I found a story book from Grandma that I think I've never read.
I found a pack of trading cards,
I found my sister's Barbie doll

(all) I haven't found a thing to wear;
I haven't found a thing to wear,
(spoken) But I found my watch!
(sung) And that's not all!

CHORUS

The car is in the driveway, they're honking on the horn.
But I'm not wearing much more than when I first was born.
I had better think of something before tomorrow morn.
I looked up on the hanger and saw what I should have worn.

3. I found my shirt, I found my pants; I found my socks all hanging there.
I found my shoes all nice and shiny and the belt I like to wear.
I found my wristwatch, so I wore it.
Ran a comb right through my hair.
I dressed in what I'm s'posed to wear.

When I get home I'm going there: In fancy clothes or underwear!
Really Mum... let's not care!
(spoken) Check this out!
In my closet, my wonderful closet;
There's treasure there!
